M: Let me see. [Pause] You have creative ideas in your writing!

W: Thanks, but I think I need to improve my writing skills.

M: Hmm, that requires a lot of effort. Do you read a lot?

W: No, I don't have much time to read.

M: It's the first thing you could do to improve your writing.

W: Why is that? How could reading help my writing?

M: Well, by reading books, you get a sense of how stories flow.

W: Oh, I'd never thought of that.

M: More importantly, you can learn a lot of words to use for your writing!

W: If that's so, I'll make time to read more books.

M: Oh, no. I really need it for my school assignment. When can I borrow the book, then?

W: I'm not sure, but it is supposed to be returned in a week.

M: Then, are there any other books by Shakespeare? My teacher wants me to write a book review on a work by Shakespeare.

W: Okay. [Typing sound] We have several books by Shakespeare. How about Hamlet?

M: Oh, I've heard about that story. I'll read that book instead, then.

W: Hamlet is in literature section H. I can show you where it is if you want.

M: No, that's okay. I can go get it. Thank you so much.

W: You're welcome.

M: You did a great job! I especially like the curtains with the striped pattern on the window.

W: Thank you. I thought these curtains would make my room stylish.

M: Good choice. The teddy bear on the bed is so cute.

W: These days I fall asleep hugging her.

M: How sweet! What is this lamp for?

W: I put the lamp beside the bed to read before going to sleep.

M: That's a good idea. It also gives the room a nice atmosphere.

W: The flower pot on the bookshelf looks beautiful, doesn't it?

M: It really does. And the round clock on the wall goes well with the room.

W: I'm happy to hear that you like my room.

W: Well done! What about hiking boots? Didn't you say you were going to borrow Jake's?

M: Yes, he told me to pick them up in the afternoon.

W: That's so sweet of him. Anything else?

M: There is just one more important thing left. I have to go to the grocery store to buy some snacks!

W: Snacks are important. I'm going to the grocery store right now. I could buy them for you if you want.

M: Not yet, but I've submitted applications to some other companies.

W: I thought you were satisfied with your work and salary.

M: Well, the pay is good and I'm comfortable with this job.

W: Then, why do you want to leave?

M: If I don't look for a new challenge, I will get used to doing the same easy job and I won't develop.

W: You mean you want to develop your abilities by challenging yourself with different work, don't you?

M: Exactly. I would be happier with a job that can help me improve my career.

W: I understand, but you'd better make the decision after considering the matter carefully.

M: Thank you for your advice.

W: Great! So how much is it?

W: Oh, I want to go. Where will it be held?

M: It will be held in Coex Hall.

W: That's not far from here. When is it?

M: It's on the 17th of June. Are you available?

W: Luckily, I'm free that day. I wonder how much the tickets cost.

M: They are 10 dollars per person.

12. 다음 표를 보면서 대화를 듣고, 두 사람이 구입할 전기 주전자를 고르시오.

M: Amy, look at this flyer. Electric kettles are on sale!

W: Really? That's great! I think it is a good time to buy a new one.

M: Yeah, let's see. [Pause] This one looks cute but maybe it's too small for us.

W: You're right. We drink a lot of tea. It should be at least 1.5 liters.

M: Hmm, this one is too expensive. I don't want to spend more than $30 on a kettle.

W: Me, either. Then we have three options. Which color do you like?

M: I don't think black looks good in our kitchen.

W: I agree. It makes the kitchen too dark.

M: What about the material? There is a plastic one and a glass one.

W: We have used a plastic one before. It's better to try the other material this time.

M: Good point. Then let's buy this one.

13. 대화를 듣고, 여자의 마지막 말에 대한 남자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Willy, what are you doing?

M: Hi, Kelly! I'm making plans to run for president of student council.

W: Really? I'm guessing there will be strong competition among the candidates.

M: What do you mean by that?

W: I heard Angela is also going to run for the position. She is popular among her classmates, you know.

M: I didn't know she was interested. I thought she was a shy girl.

W: Her friends are rather enthusiastic about making her student council president.

M: Good for her! I hope my friends help me, too.

W: I want to assist you in any way I can. Is there anything I can do?

W: Yeah, but how can that help you?

M: _____

14. 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Katie, how was school today?

W: Great, Dad. We had a special lecture about a new study strategy.

M: That must have been helpful for you! You have been worried about your grades these days.

W: Yeah, I have. Now I'm going to make a new study plan based on what I learned today.

M: What did you learn? Tell me about it.

W: The lecturer is the author of the book Just Start Small. He said we should start small if we want to get good grades.

M: Start small? That doesn't make sense to me.

W: Let me give you an example. Memorizing just one simple Spanish sentence after lunch is not difficult, is it?

M: Right, that doesn't seem like much effort.

W: But if I do it for a month steadily, I will be able to speak thirty Spanish sentences in total.

M: Then that's not so little anymore.

W: _____

15. 다음 상황 설명을 듣고, Sarah가 Peter에게 할 말로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

His voice is too small and he even forgets what he should say from time to time. Sarah is worried about Peter, so she asks him to discuss his problem with her. Peter says that he is afraid of acting in front of many people. Then, Sarah remembers her experience from last year. When she felt the same way, she used to practice while her family or friends watched, and she found it really helpful. Now, Sarah wants to suggest that he practice as she did. In this situation, what would Sarah most likely say to Peter?

16번부터 17번까지는 두 번 들려줍니다.

[16~17] 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

M: Hello, students. Yesterday we looked at movies where robots and ghosts talk and act like human beings. Today we're going to talk about movies where animals play an important role. The 1961 film, 101 Dalmatians, is a Walt Disney classic. A dog, Pongo, played a lovable role in this memorable film. But animal movies aren't just about dogs. The movie, Lion King, tells the story of a young lion, Simba. He becomes the king after overcoming many difficulties. Jurassic Park is a 1993 American science fiction film directed by Steven Spielberg. You can feel big thrills while watching many dangerous dinosaurs. In Babe, a cute little pig made a strong impression on lots of moviegoers. What's the best animal character movie? If you think your favorite animal film is missing, go ahead and share it with us!
