W: You can download it from the school website.

M: My computer is broken. Is there any other way to get the form?

W: _____

2번 대화를 듣고, 여자의 마지막 말에 대한 남자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Thomas, do you have any plans after work?

M: No. I was going to go to a baseball game, but it was canceled due to rain.

W: Why don't we watch a movie together? I've got two free tickets. But they're only good until today.

M: _____

3번 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Honey, do you still want to go to the new Italian restaurant on Queen Street today?

W: Of course, I do. But you said that you have to prepare for a presentation.

M: I got a call from my boss this afternoon, and he said it's been pushed back a week.

W: _____

4번 다음을 듣고, 여자가 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Good morning, listeners. Thanks to smartphones we can easily get information anytime and anywhere. However, if you use them too much, it can cause serious health problems. For example, if you look at the screen too long, you blink less than usual. This can cause dryness of your eyes, blurred vision, and eye strain. In addition, when using smartphones, you bend your head down constantly. This posture places more weight on your neck bones and may cause neck pain. Plus, using your smartphone for a long time can cause you to feel pain in your wrists from typing. Keep aware of these problems and use your smartphones smartly.

5번 다음을 듣고, 남자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Hello, everyone. I'm Tony, a trainer at Citizen Sports. Walking is a generally safe exercise option, but it can sometimes result in injury. So there are a few safety tips to keep in mind to prevent injury. First, make sure to wear shoes with a proper fit and level of support. Properly fit shoes can protect you from sprains or even broken bones. Second, keep a pace that is appropriate for your level. If you walk too fast, it can increase the risk of heart disease. Walking at a pace that is comfortable for you can keep you safe and healthy. Let's enjoy walking with these tips in mind.

6번 대화를 듣고, 여자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Kelly, how's your drama class?

W: It's really fun. And it's helpful for my relationships with others.

M: How's that?

W: Well, I've had lots of opportunities to build relationships when collaborating on writing and performing in plays.

M: But don't you have a lot of disagreements when working with others?

W: That does happen. But while dealing with the disagreements, I learn how to manage conflict.

M: That sounds positive. Have you learned anything else?

W: Yeah. I've learned to understand other people's feelings by playing different roles.

M: I can see that. You can probably learn a lot by putting yourself in someone else's shoes.

W: Exactly. You should take the class next semester. You'll be surprised at how much it can improve your relationship skills.

M: Good idea. I'll think about it.

7번 대화를 듣고, 남자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Mark, I heard you bought an electric car. How do you like it? I'm thinking of buying one myself.

M: Well, I like that it's environmentally friendly but driving it can be inconvenient. I wouldn't recommend buying one yet.

W: What's your biggest issue?

M: Above all, I'm not satisfied with the battery installed in my electric car.

W: What's wrong with the battery?

M: I often drive long distances, but I can only drive about 300 kilometers even if the battery is fully charged.

W: That must be inconvenient. There should be more powerful batteries.

M: And it's not easy to find electric charging stations.

W: Then I guess more charging stations should be built.

M: Yeah. I think there need to be improvements to encourage more people to buy electric cars.

W: I see your point.

8번 대화를 듣고, 두 사람의 관계를 가장 잘 나타낸 것을 고르시오.

M: Ms. Taylor. I heard you finished the work. How were you able to finish it so quickly?

M: Wow. It's so great that a poem turned into a song.

W: I composed it at a medium tempo. It won't be hard for you to sing it.

M: Thanks. You know me better than I know myself.

W: Why do you want to sing? You're not a singer.

M: My fans really want to hear me sing. So I promised to sing for them at the upcoming fan meeting.

W: That's nice of you. And singing will broaden your acting range as well.

M: Yeah. In fact, I'm going to play a singer in my next movie.

W: Wow. I'm looking forward to seeing you soon in the movie.

W: Not yet. But I'm going to go to the shopping mall today to get a T-shirt she wanted.

M: I see. Do you know if there's anything else she wants?

W: She's into dinosaurs these days. Why don't you get her a book about dinosaurs?

W: Actually I was running the Bay State Marathon that day.

M: Really? I didn't know you're a runner.

M: Open Campus Day? What is that for?

W: It is to give high school students a chance to experience their future majors.

M: It would be helpful for us. When is it?

W: It's going to be held on Friday, May 4. We can go there after the midterm exam.

M: Great. Oh, there are a lot of interesting programs we can choose from.

W: Yeah. We can do an interesting experiment at the science lab. They also provide an opportunity to talk to the students there.

M: Wow. I've really wanted to do those things. How can we sign up?

M: That's true, but it's worth it. Volunteer work makes me feel like I'm really doing something meaningful.

W: What do you mean by something meaningful?

M: I mean I'm not just doing something for myself. I'm contributing to my students' lives by teaching a valuable skill.

18번 다음 상황 설명을 듣고, Clara가 Andy에게 할 말로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Rosedale High School holds a team project contest every year. Participants are supposed to select a topic, do research, and present. This year Clara and Andy join the contest as a team. For their topic, they choose pollution problems and solutions in their community. While Clara and Andy are working on the project, Clara realizes that their topic is too broad and that they may not be able to finish the project on time. She thinks this is because their topic covers all types of pollution, like water, air, and noise. Clara wants to tell Andy that they need to focus on a more specific topic like water pollution. In this situation, what would Clara most likely say to Andy?

【19-20】 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하시오.

W: We all know who Christopher Columbus is. But not many people know that Columbus brought new kinds of food from the American continent to Europe. One of them is the potato, which was so popular and widespread that it became a staple crop in many countries. The next item is the chili pepper. It was introduced as a spice to European people and has become one of the most important cooking ingredients in the world. Another fascinating example is cacao. When it was first introduced, people used it to make a warm beverage. Now it's also used to make chocolate, one of our favorite snacks. The last example brought to Europe is the pineapple. The fruit was exotic and only available for royal and wealthy people. But now we can buy them easily at the market. Thanks to all these foods, our dining experiences are richer than ever.
