3번 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

[Cellphone rings.]

M: Katie, where are you? The concert is about to begin.

W: Sorry. I'm on my way, but I still need ten more minutes. You'd better go in first.

W: _____

4번 다음을 듣고, 여자가 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Hi, I'm Amelia Lansky, a counselor from Greenfield Youth Clinic. Do you find yourself constantly checking your smartphone? If you do, you may be addicted to it. Here are some solutions for your smartphone addiction. First, create no-phone time zones. For at least two hours a day, turn off your phone and stay completely focused on your studies or assignment. Next, find something to keep you away from your phone such as playing sports. Try not to use your phone while doing these activities. Lastly, keep a daily record of all the things you accomplished while not using your phone. You'll feel proud of yourself and be able to make a better plan to escape from smartphone addiction.

5번 다음을 듣고, 남자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Good morning, listeners. I'm Ben Baker from Oakville Community Center. I have great news today. Our center is offering a free badminton class thanks to the financial support of the city council. The class will be held every Wednesday afternoon for a month beginning June 6. Registration begins on May 21. Participants will be selected on a first-come-first-served basis. W: Why don't you take a career psychology test? It analyzes your personality and matches you with possible future careers.

M: I've never heard about that.

W: One of my friends was experiencing the same problem. But after she took the test, she found that writing could be a potential career for her.

M: Really? You mean taking the test can help me to find the right career for myself?

W: Absolutely. It'll help you choose a direction for your future.

M: That's encouraging. I'll try the test.

W: Okay. Good luck.

M: But it wasn't on the shopping list, was it? It's a waste of money.

W: We drink milk everyday. We'll need it sooner or later.

M: We already have a lot of milk. We won't drink it all before the expiration date.

W: I didn't think about that. I thought I was saving money.

M: I believe we can be a wise consumer only when we purchase what we plan to.

W: That makes sense.

M: We need to stick to the plan when we go shopping.

W: Okay. I'll try from now on.

M: It was not easy in the beginning, but I'm getting used to my new environment.

W: Great. I hope you learn a lot during your exchange program. Is there anything I can do for you?

M: Can I record your history class? It's hard to remember the names of so many historic events.

W: Of course you can. I hadn't thought about your troubles.

M: Thank you. That would be helpful for reviewing class at home.

M: Here. I used only three colors to help the audience focus on the contents.

W: Good. Well, how about enlarging the font size? It'll make the slides more readable.

M: Okay. I'll do that. But I'm worried about the photos I'm using in the slides.

W: What do you mean?

M: I downloaded the photos from a website for free. I'm not sure whether using them is against copyright laws.

W: If you're not sure, don't use them. You can easily violate the laws unintentionally.

M: Is there any website where I can download copyright-free photos?

W: There is. I'll let you know the website.

M: Thanks for your help.

W: Oh, Jason. You're calling early. What's up?

M: Sorry. But I'm afraid I can't get to work on time today.

W: Why is that? Is it because of the snow we had last night?

M: No, it's already melted. It's actually because of my daughter.

W: What happened? Is she sick?

M: No, she's all right. I have to take my daughter to school. Her school bus broke down this morning.

W: Oh, I see. How late will you be?

M: Her school's not too far away. It won't take longer than an hour.

M: Well, it's normally $40, but we're having a promotion now, so you can get 10 percent off the item.

W: Great. I'll take two. And can you recommend a good supplement for my eyes?

M: How about Eye Star? It's the best selling item these days and it's only $20.

W: Oh, that's reasonable. I'll take one.

M: Okay, so two Mega Vitas and one Eye Star, right?

W: Correct.

M: Since you're buying more than two items, we provide a 30 percent-off coupon. But you can only use it for a future purchase.

W: All right. Here's my credit card.

M: Yes, it is. It's on the first floor of our building.

M: I know. But I can't remember where I took it off.
W: Let's calm down. We still have a couple of minutes.
M: Let me think.
W: When was the last time you were wearing your tie?

18번 다음 상황 설명을 듣고, Mr. Thompson이 Jenny에게 할 말로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Jenny is a high school student and wants to be a great hip-hop dancer. She plans to compete in a national hip-hop dance contest at the end of the year and wants to practice in her classroom after school. When she asked her homeroom teacher, Mr. Thompson, about using the classroom, he said no. He explained that she may interrupt other students' after-school activities. However, Mr. Thompson knows that the school's music room is soundproof. He wants to suggest to Jenny that she ask the music teacher about using the music room. In this situation, what would Mr. Thompson most likely say to Jenny?

【19-20】 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

W: You probably think the toilet bowl is the dirtiest thing in your house. But the toilet bowl is one of the cleanest spots in almost anyone's home. It's because people think the toilet is dirty and obsessively clean it. Surprisingly, though, there are several items much dirtier than you think. One of them is your cellphone. It can have ten times more germs than a toilet seat. The kitchen sponge can also be quite problematic. Because it often remains wet, we can find a lot of germs in it. Now, let's look at the pillows in your bedroom. They can attract a lot of microorganisms and germs as people don't change them often enough. Finally, the hand towels in the bathroom tend to have more bacteria than the toilet bowl because they're shared by several people and often stay damp. Now you know which household items are dirty, right? Then, let's keep them as clean as possible.

19번 여자가 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.
