M: Hello. I came here to make a public library card.

W: Okay. Please fill in the form. And I need your ID card and your photo.

M: I brought my ID card, but I didn't know I needed a photo.

W: _____

2번 대화를 듣고, 여자의 마지막 말에 대한 남자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: David, I'm so nervous. I have to retake the computer certification exam tomorrow to graduate.

M: Really? Didn't you pass the test last time?

W: No, I didn't. I hope I do well this time.

M: _____

3번 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Ms. White, you look very tired today. Are you all right?

W: I think I might have caught a cold. I feel the office is a little cold for me.

M: Sorry to hear that. Do you want me to turn up the heater a little bit?

W: _____

4번 다음을 듣고, 여자가 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Hello, students! Today, we're looking at cotton, the most widely used textile in Korea. As cotton is a natural fiber, it's soft, comfortable and skin-friendly. That's why people with skin troubles prefer to wear clothes made from cotton. Another good point is that it absorbs sweat well, so it's best worn in summer. However, cotton has disadvantages as well. First of all, it needs to be ironed every time you wear it because it wrinkles easily. Besides that, the color of cotton fabric does not last for long. The fabric tends to lose its color easily. Now, I'm going to show you some cotton samples.

5번 다음을 듣고, 남자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Good morning, listeners. I'm Dr. Kang from Today's Health. These days, people are having difficulties with dry eyes due to fine dust, extreme smartphone use, and dry weather. Today, I'll tell you several simple things you can do to get relief. First, take frequent breaks from smartphone and computer use. Using them for too long can dry out your eyes. Second, drinking more water can help ease dryness. Third, wear glasses rather than contact lenses. Finally, massage and wash your eyelids with warm water. Healthy eyes are very important. Keep these tips in mind and give them a try. Thank you.

6번 대화를 듣고, 여자의 주장으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Hey, Mr. Jones. Come and check out this news article.

M: Okay. What's it about?

W: An elementary school student saved her father's life by using CPR.

M: Really? I can't believe it.

W: Do you think our students could actually do CPR without hesitation in an emergency like this one?

M: I guess so. They took CPR classes so they know how to do it.

W: I don't know. They usually just watch video clips for their CPR lessons. They don't actually practice it.

M: It takes so much time to have every student practice the proper procedure.

W: To know is one thing and to do is quite another. I think they really need some practical experience in order to save a life.

M: Agreed.

7번 대화를 듣고, 남자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Honey, what are you doing up so late?

W: I'm working on our trip schedule for Hawaii next month.

M: Are you? Do you remember our last trip to Guam? You were so stressed out when things didn't go as planned.

W: I know. But, I think we still need to set up travel plans.

M: I don't want the same thing to happen this time.

W: But I'm so nervous without specific plans.

M: We don't have to plan everything we'll do during our trip. We can just relax and have fun.

W: Are you really okay without travel plans?

M: You bet I am. If we try to stick to the plans, we'll be stressed and not able to enjoy ourselves fully.

W: Okay. I get your point. I'll try to enjoy the moment itself.

M: That's great. Planning everything is not always good when it comes to travel.

W: All right.

8번 대화를 듣고, 두 사람의 관계를 가장 잘 나타낸 것을 고르시오.

M: Here we are. This is the place we talked about on the phone.

W: Thanks for your help. This looks nice.

M: I'm glad you think so. This house has three bedrooms, two bathrooms, a large living room and a kitchen.

W: I guess the kitchen has been renovated recently.

M: That's right. The bathroom next to the big bedroom has a tub and the other has a shower.

W: Okay. Are there any schools near here?

M: Greensburg Elementary School is 5 minutes away on foot. It's one of the best schools in the city.

W: Cool. How much does the owner want for this place?

M: They're asking for $1,000 per month, but I can negotiate, if you want.

W: Hmm... Let me talk to my husband. Try to get us the best deal in the meantime.

M: Sure.

9번 다음 그림의 상황에 가장 적절한 대화를 고르시오.

M: Number One

W: I wonder why there isn't a traffic sign at this crosswalk.

M: So do I. It would be safer if there was one.

M: Number Two

W: Stop! The light has changed. Keep your eyes on the road while driving.

M: I know. I was about to stop.

M: Number Three

W: You need to press this button to cross the street.

M: Thanks for your help.

M: Number Four

W: Be careful! You almost bumped into a person walking the other way.

M: I see. I'll keep my eyes open.

M: Number Five

W: Hey! You can't cross the street here. There's a crosswalk right there.

M: Oh, I didn't know. I'll use the crosswalk.

10번 대화를 듣고, 남자가 여자에게 부탁한 일로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Timmy, what are you looking for?

M: I'm looking for my red ball-point pen. Did you happen to see it?

W: No. You mean the one you're using all the time?

M: Yeah. That's my favorite brand. I hate losing my belongings.

W: That's too bad. I used to lose pens all the time, but now I have a way to not lose them.

M: What do you mean? How do you do that?

W: I began to put name stickers on my pens.

M: Oh, that's a good idea. I want to buy name stickers like yours.

W: You can design and order your own name stickers using an online shopping mall. I was about to order some because I'm running out of them.

M: Really? Could you order some for me when you order yours?

W: Sure. So do you want me to order the same design as mine?

M: Yes, please. Thank you so much.

11번 대화를 듣고, 남자가 여행 가방을 새로 구입하려는 이유로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Honey, where is my carry-on bag?

W: In the closet beside the bookshelf. Are you going to start packing for your business trip to Paris?

M: Yes. It's time to start packing. [Pause] Oh, I found it.

W: It's dirty from your last trip, isn't it?

M: It is, but I can clean it off.

W: Good. Are the wheels and zippers working okay?

M: Let's see... They seem to be working fine.

W: That's good. Hmm... I don't think it's big enough to pack all your stuff, though. You've got a lot of sample products to pack.

M: Right. I might also need more space to pack samples I get in Paris.

W: Then, you should buy a bigger bag.

M: I think so, too. I'll go buy one this evening.

12번 대화를 듣고, 여자가 지불할 총 금액을 고르시오.

M: May I help you, ma'am?

W: Yes. I came here to sign my sons up for soccer classes. How much are they?

M: They're $40 a month per person. But it's only $100 in total per person if you pay for three months in advance.

W: Really? Then I'll pay for three months for my two sons.

M: Good. Have your sons been here before?

W: No, they haven't. Is there anything else they need?

M: Yes. They have to buy uniforms. It's $30 for one.

W: Okay. I'll buy two uniforms. Do I have to tell you their sizes now?

M: No, there are only three sizes. We'll give them the right one on the first day.

W: Great. I'll pay for everything now.

13번 대화를 듣고, New Year's Concert에 관해 언급되지 않은 것을 고르시오.

W: Hey, Jack. Today, I saw a poster about a New Year's Concert.

M: You mean the one hosted by the Bella Art Center?

W: Right. Shall we go there together? I'm sure it'll be wonderful.

M: Good. Is the concert going to be on December 30th?

W: Correct. They have a special guest this time.

M: Who is it?

W: John Smith, a violinist. I watched a video clip of him playing and it was wonderful. I really want to see him play live.

M: Wow! That's great.

W: Do you know how to buy tickets?

M: Yeah. We can buy them on the Bella Art Center's website.

W: Then let's book the tickets right now.

M: All right. I hope there are seats left for us.

15번 다음 표를 보면서 대화를 듣고, 두 사람이 신청할 우유 배달 서비스를 고르시오.

W: Honey, I'm looking at a milk delivery service in this catalog. It says they deliver milk in the morning.

M: Oh, really? It would be nice getting fresh milk. Let's take a look at it now.

W: All right. Let me see. How many times a week do you want it delivered?

M: I think more than five times a week is a lot.

W: I agree with you. Three or four times a week would be enough.

M: Right. What about the quantity?

W: I think 1,000 milliliters is too much. Let's sign up for one that is less than 1,000 milliliters.

M: Good idea. I love strawberry flavor. How about you?

W: Hmm... I think plain milk is better for our health.

M: You're right. I like plain milk, too. Now we have two options left. Which one shall we choose?

W: Let's start with the cheaper one and see if we like it.

M: All right. Let's sign up for it.

W: Umm, when did you go to the flea market?

M: Both times I went on Sunday afternoon.

M: What do you mean?

M: I know stomachaches can be really disturbing and painful. I went through the same thing for quite a while.

W: Did you? I'm getting better, but my stomach still hurts often.

M: I can give you some tips to reduce the pain.

W: I'm all ears. What are they?

M: Try to avoid too much coffee and spicy food. Also, don't overeat or lie down right after eating.

W: I love coffee and spicy food, though.

M: I know, but trust me. It helped me a lot. Why don't you give it a try?

W: _____

18번 다음 상황 설명을 듣고, Rachel이 Michael에게 할 말로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Rachel and Michael are team members on the Cooper High School debate team. Recently, they've been preparing for an upcoming debate. They take turns practicing their debate speech while the other plays the role of chairman. When Rachel takes the role of chairman, she realizes Michael talks too much and never keeps the time limit. But she knows that keeping the time limit is a must for getting a good score. She wants to advise that Michael keep the time limit even though he has a lot to say. In this situation, what would Rachel most likely say to Michael?

【19-20】 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

W: Hello, everyone. According to Money Magazine, the average household throws away about fourteen percent of their food because the food is not fresh. For the typical family, that adds up to over $1,300 worth of food per year. When foods are stored properly, however, they stay fresher for a longer period of time. Here are some examples. First, meat should be kept in its original packaging if you'll eat it in the next day or two. If not, put it in a zipper bag, then store it in your freezer. Next, when you put vegetables such as cabbage in the refrigerator, place some paper towels underneath them. The paper towels will absorb excess moisture and help keep them fresh. Also, try putting an apple in your bag of potatoes. Apples produce a gas which keeps potatoes fresher for a few more weeks. You should also avoid putting your tomatoes in the refrigerator. The juicy texture of tomatoes can't survive the cold. Now, let's take a look at more examples in detail.

19번 여자가 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.
