1번 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

[Cellphone rings.]

M: Hello, Esther. Sorry. I missed your call. What's up?

W: I need your help, Dad. I need my USB flash drive for my presentation this afternoon, but I left it at home. Could you please bring it to me?

M: Sure, I'm home now. Just tell me where it is and I'll bring it to you right away.

W: _____

2번 대화를 듣고, 여자의 마지막 말에 대한 남자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Honey, what are you doing?

M: I'm searching for our flight tickets to Hawaii. We have to decide what time we should leave.

W: Hmm, we only have five days there. So if we arrive late in the afternoon, we may not be able to do everything we'd like to do.

M: _____

3번 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Jenny, is the bike in front of this supermarket yours?

W: Yes, it is. Why do you ask?

M: Well, it looks like you need some air in your back tire.

W: _____

4번 다음을 듣고, 여자가 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Hello, listeners. Welcome to Nature Lovers. When you're outdoors, it's possible to encounter wild animals. So it's important to know some safety tips about what to do in that situation. Here are some of them. First, remain calm and avoid running away from animals. Unexpected movements can frighten animals and make them feel threatened, which increases the likelihood that they'll attack. Second, maintain your distance. It's important to avoid approaching, and especially, touching animals. Keep enough space from animals to stay safe. Lastly, don't feed wild animals. It can potentially be dangerous for you as they may bite you. Please keep these in mind.

5번 다음을 듣고, 남자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Hello, students! This is your vice principal, Mr. Taylor. As you know, our school lounge is getting remodeled later this year. And we've decided to hold a special contest to determine the design of the student lounge! So I strongly encourage you to enter the contest and share your creative ideas for the design of the student lounge. Just go to the school website to see the full details of the contest and to download the contest registration form. Include your design in the form and then submit it to your homeroom teacher by next Friday. The winning designs will be represented in the construction of the student lounge! We look forward to your artistic, creative ideas. Thank you.

6번 대화를 듣고, 여자의 주장으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Keith, what are you doing on your smartphone?

M: Hi, Jasmine. I'm selling a jacket using a secondhand market app.

W: That's really convenient, isn't it? Nowadays it's so easy to buy and sell secondhand things for a good price.

M: Totally. Look. I'm chatting with someone now who wants to buy my jacket.

W: Cool. Oh, wait! Are you about to send the person your phone number? Don't do that, Keith! You should never give your phone number to other people.

M: Why not? We have to arrange when and where to meet.

W: But how can you trust them? They can use your phone number in criminal ways.

M: Oh, I've never thought about that. I'd better just figure out when and where to meet through chatting without giving out my phone number, even though it's not as convenient as talking on the phone. Thanks for the tip, Jasmine.

W: No problem. Good luck with selling your jacket.

7번 대화를 듣고, 남자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Lucy, how was your first week at your new school?

W: Just okay, Dad. I wasn't able to find anybody who's interested in sports like me.

M: Oh, really? Then maybe this could be a good opportunity for you.

W: How so?

M: Well, if you become friends with people with different interests from you, you may find new things you're interested in.

W: I'm not sure what you mean.

M: The things you're interested in now may not be the only things you actually like. But you don't know that unless you find out about other things.

W: Can you give an example?

M: Sure. You always make friends with people who love playing sports, like you. But if you make a friend with someone who likes art, you may realize you like art, too.

W: Ah, I see what you mean now. Good point. Thanks for your advice, Dad.

M: I'm sure it's good for you to make friends with people who have different interests from you.

8번 대화를 듣고, 두 사람의 관계를 가장 잘 나타낸 것을 고르시오.

W: Hello, Mr. Smith. Do you have a minute to talk?

M: Of course. What is it?

W: As you know, the school broadcasting club festival is next month. Our broadcasting club is going to film a short video based on a part of the novel we read in your class.

M: That sounds great. What part?

W: The family reunion part. It's very touching. Actually, I'd like to ask if you could play the role of the father in the video.

M: Really? But I've never acted before in my life.

W: That's okay. You know about the character better than anyone. All of our club members would love to have you in the video.

M: That's kind of you to say. Well, I'll think about it.

W: Great. Then I'll give you the script in class tomorrow, and you can decide after reading it.

M: Perfect. I look forward to reading it.

9번 다음 그림의 상황에 가장 적절한 대화를 고르시오.

M: There's about a 30-minute wait for pizza. Is that okay?

M: Number Four

M: Okay. And I'm going to set up the food culture booth after school today. And Jane and Tim are going to make the quiz show questions together.

W: That's good. They're really good at making questions.

M: How's the photo zone?

W: It's basically done. I just need to get the costumes.

M: Great! So what's left to do?

W: We have to hang the pictures we've taken on the wall. Can you do it tomorrow morning?

W: Why don't we go there this Friday?

M: I'd love to, but I can't.

W: Why? Do you have to work on your science assignment?

M: No. I'm almost done with it.

W: Great. Oh, you volunteer at the public library every Friday, don't you?

M: No. That's on Thursdays. Actually, I went to an eye doctor last week because I was experiencing some eye pain. He told me not to swim for a couple of weeks.

W: That's too bad. Are you getting better?

M: Yeah. The pain is going away.

W: That's good. I hope it fully goes away soon.

W: Oh, they're really nice. How much are they?

M: Aprons are originally 30 dollars each, but we're having a special discount on them. You can get 10 percent off right now.

W: Great. I'll buy one apron. And, how much are these paint brushes?

M: They're 10 dollars each.

W: I'll buy two of them. Does the discount apply to the brushes, too?

M: Sorry. It's only for aprons.

W: That's okay. Here's my credit card.

13번 대화를 듣고, Star Table Tennis Academy에 관해 언급되지 않은 것을 고르시오.

M: Honey, check out this website I just found.

W: What's it for?

M: It's for the Star Table Tennis Academy. We talked about taking table tennis lessons before.

W: Cool. Where is it located?

M: It's on Mondo Street, not far from our home.

W: That's great! Look at this picture. They have 20 tables to play on, and they all look nice.

M: Awesome. But you know we sometimes have to work overtime. Let's check when they close.

W: Let's see. Oh, good. They're open from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. How about parking?

M: Here it says they have a large parking lot that's free to use.

W: Perfect! This seems like a great place for us.

W: Thomas, what are you looking at?

M: This is a list of coding courses, Mom. I want to take one, but I'm not sure which one to choose. Can you help me?

W: Sure. So there are five courses.

M: Yeah. Oh, I normally have computer club meetings on Fridays. So, I can't take this one.

W: Then cross that one out. Hmm, why don't you take one of these morning ones? That way, I can take you there on my way to work.

M: Great idea. And since I've never learned coding, I shouldn't take this intermediate course.

W: Right. So it's down to these two. Which group size do you prefer?

M: I prefer the smaller one.

W: Then you should register for this course.

M: I will. Thanks, Mom.

16번 대화를 듣고, 여자의 마지막 말에 대한 남자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Paul, it's so cold outside. Let's stop at the café and get a hot coffee to go.

W: Do you have a tumbler with you now?

M: No, I don't. Why do you ask?

W: Because if you use a tumbler, you can get a discount on the coffee.

M: Oh, I didn't know that.

W: But actually, that's not the only reason it's good to use a tumbler.

M: What's another reason?

W: To save the earth. Billions of disposable cups are thrown away each year. If everyone uses their own cups like tumblers, we can significantly reduce our waste.

18번 다음 상황 설명을 듣고, Katie가 Nathan에게 할 말로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Nathan and Katie belong to their high school's art club. Nathan is the club leader, and Katie is one of the regular members. Recently, Katie finds out that her club members love playing sports, so she thinks it would be a good idea for the club to have a sports day for some fun. Katie tells Nathan her idea, and he likes it. However, they're not sure what sport to play. Katie thinks getting ideas from all of the club members would help to decide. So Katie wants to suggest to Nathan that they find out what sport the other members would like to play. In this situation, what would Katie most likely say to Nathan?

【19-20】 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

W: Last class, we discussed the benefits of learning to play an instrument. Today, I'll introduce some musical instruments which are easy for beginners to learn. The first instrument is the piano. People can easily learn to play some popular basic songs pretty quickly. The next one is the ukulele. Once people learn a few basic chords, they can play a variety of songs. The harmonica is also easy to learn to play because the main principles of how it works can be learned in just a few hours. Lastly, most people might think that it would take a long time to learn to play the harp, but it's easy to learn a few chords and play some nice melodies. Now, let's watch a video clip on these instruments.

19번 여자가 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

20번 언급된 악기가 아닌 것을 고르시오.
