W: Welcome to All for Your Kitchen. May I help you?

M: I'm looking for a cutting board.

W: Okay. We have various shapes. But most people usually choose the round or rectangular ones.

M: I'll choose the rectangular one. I think it looks more practical.

W: Then, which style do you prefer, checkered pattern or plain?

M: I'll go with the checkered pattern.

W: Alright. Then I strongly recommend this one with the handle on the side. It's very handy to carry.

M: Oh, nice. I'll take this one with the handle.

W: Good choice. Let's go to the check-out counter.

2번 대화를 듣고, 두 사람이 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Ethan, it's been a long time. Wow, you're looking really fit.

M: Thanks. I've been taking swimming classes regularly.

W: Wow. It sure is working. What do you think is important when you're swimming?

M: People usually focus on how to swim, but I think doing warm-up exercises before swimming is the most important.

W: Interesting. That's not what I expected.

M: Warm-up exercises are important to prevent injuries and heart attacks.

W: Are there any other benefits of warm-up exercises?

M: It can also increase flexibility, so you can move your body more smoothly.

W: I see. I'll remember that before I get into the water next time.

3번 대화를 듣고, 두 사람이 만나기로 한 시각을 고르시오.

W: Liam, did you hear that the student council is planning a surprise event?

M: Really? What's the surprise, Jane?

W: The school band will perform at the auditorium after school today. Do you want to go see it?

M: Of course. What time does it start?

W: It starts at 6 p.m. How about meeting at 5 p.m. to get a good seat?

M: Sounds good. [Pause] Oh, wait. I have my afterschool badminton class today. It finishes at 5:10 p.m.

W: Okay. Since it'll take you about 10 minutes to get to the auditorium, how about 5:20 p.m. then?

M: Sorry, I need to take a shower afterwards.

W: Okay, let's meet at 5:40 p.m. in front of the auditorium.

M: Great. See you there.

4번 대화를 듣고, 여자가 제과점에 가려는 이유로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Hi, Sophia. Where are you going?

W: I'm heading over to Park's bakery.

M: I know that place. They have some unique pies. Are you going to buy some?

W: Actually, I bought some apple cinnamon pies right when they came out this morning.

M: Then, why are you going there again?

W: I accidentally left my credit card at the counter. I got a call from the bakery.

M: Really? How did they get your number?

W: I registered my number to get reward points.

M: That's good. You'd better hurry up and get it back.

M: It's okay. When should I go pick it up?

W: We're open from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. You can drop by anytime during those hours.

M: I see. I have a full schedule today. Would tomorrow be okay?

W: Certainly. Just let our staff know when you arrive.

W: Have you ever been to the new cafe near the kindergarten?

M: Yeah, a couple of times.

W: Did you know they have a no-kids policy? I think cafes are places for everyone to enjoy coffee and snacks.

M: I see your point, but some people prefer quiet places.

W: But isn't that somewhat unfair? Kids can add joy to the atmosphere.

M: You're right. But sometimes adults seek peace, and they can be disturbed by noisy kids.

W: I get that point, but it still feels unreasonable.

M: Think of it as giving adults a peaceful break, not as being against kids. People have different preferences, you know?

W: I guess, but I still believe that cafes should be open to everyone.

M: Yes, we'll have a school field trip.

W: Can you tell me how long the school field trip will be? I need to order less ingredients than usual.

M: Sure. It'll be three days for the first and the second graders, and only one day for the third graders.
