1번 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Hi, Fiona. Do you remember we're going to the park this Saturday?

W: Of course, Mike. What time works best for you? I'm totally free on that day.

M: How about meeting around 3 in the afternoon? That's a good time to take a walk.

W: _____

2번 대화를 듣고, 여자의 마지막 말에 대한 남자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Dad, have you seen my Bluetooth headphones? I've looked everywhere but I can't find them.

M: Where was the last place that you used them?

W: I haven't seen them since I used them in the gym. Maybe I left them there.

M: _____

3번 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Honey, I noticed the air conditioner is not working.

W: Oh, no! It broke down again? We just got it fixed two weeks ago.

M: Could you call the service center and see if they can send someone to fix it tomorrow? I'll be home all day long.

W: _____

4번 다음을 듣고, 여자가 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Welcome to Today's Living Tips. Many of us spend most of our time indoors, so keeping the air inside clean is very important for our health. Here are some easy ways to make the air quality better. First, open your windows often to let in some air, even during the winter. This is the easiest and best way to bring in fresh air. Second, adding some houseplants, like small green plants or flowers, can help clean the air naturally. There are even some special plants that purify the air more effectively. Lastly, cleaning your home often, especially vacuuming with special filters, can remove dust and other things that cause allergies. These small steps provide your home with clean, fresh air.

5번 다음을 듣고, 남자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Hello, students. This is Mr. Kim, your school counselor. One of the biggest concerns students have is how to handle conflicts with their friends. So, I'd like to give you some advice. If you have an argument with a friend, it's important to take some time to cool off first. It'll help you both reflect on what happened. Once you're ready, you can reach out and start a calm conversation. Instead of blaming the other person, focus on how you felt using "I" statements, like "I felt hurt when you did that." This helps avoid making the other person defensive. I hope these tips will help you resolve conflicts with your friends.

6번 대화를 듣고, 여자의 주장으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Paul, are you listening to music while studying?

M: Yeah, Mom. It helps me relax and makes studying less boring. Why?

W: Research shows that listening to music can interfere with focus. So, you should not listen to music while studying.

M: Really? I thought it helped me concentrate better.

W: That's a common misconception. Silence is much better for staying focused and remembering what you study.

M: So, you're saying I shouldn't listen to music while studying?

W: Exactly. Many students find that they study more efficiently in a quiet environment.

M: Hmm, I didn't know that. Does it really have a big impact?

W: Absolutely. Turn off the music completely while studying. It'll make a big difference.

M: Okay, I'll try studying in silence next time.

7번 대화를 듣고, 남자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Jenny, you've bought new shoes again?

W: I know, but I can't help buying shoes whenever I see nice ones.

M: Well, instead of buying something you like right away, you should wait a week.

W: Interesting approach. Does it really work?

M: Yes! I believe taking time before making a purchase helps you shop smarter.

W: What's the reason behind that?

M: After a week, I often realize I don't actually need those items. It's like the initial excitement I had fades away.

W: That's pretty smart!

M: Right. If you make hasty decisions when shopping, you often regret it later. This method helps you become a smart shopper.

W: Thanks for the tip. I'll try that.

8번 대화를 듣고, 두 사람의 관계를 가장 잘 나타낸 것을 고르시오.

W: Hi, Simon. How's your ankle feeling today?

M: Better than last week. The exercises you and I did together really helped.

W: That's good to hear. Can you bend your ankle without pain?

M: Let me try. [Pause] It's a little sore but not as painful as before.

W: That's a positive sign. Your recovery is going faster than I expected.

M: My coach is asking when I can start running again. I'm worried I'm falling behind in my training.

W: I understand, but haste could worsen the injury. Today, we'll rebuild your strength. Can you try standing on one leg?

M: Like this?

W: Exactly. After today's session, you can safely start doing some light running.

M: Thanks. Your help is allowing me to quickly recover from my injury and be ready for next season's marathon.

M: Yes, I think so. How about the bus rental?

W: There'll be one hundred people attending, so I rented three buses.

M: Great.

W: Do you have any comments about the budget?

M: I'm satisfied with the cost for the business trip. So, there's no need to change it.

W: Really? Why? Are you feeling sick?

M: No, not at all. I'm fine.

W: Then, why not? Oh, you said your cousin is getting married.

M: Right, but that's not today.

W: Then, what's going on?

M: My grandma is in the hospital. It's not serious, but I need to visit her.

W: I'm really sorry to hear that. I hope she feels better soon.

W: Okay. Then, I'd like to reserve a room for 5 hours.

M: Alright. We also sell snacks. Do you want something to eat or drink?

W: What do you have?

M: We have chocolate muffins and sodas. Chocolate muffins are 3 dollars each, and sodas are 2 dollars each.

W: I'll take one chocolate muffin and one soda.

M: So you're going to reserve a private study room for 5 hours and order one chocolate muffin and one soda, right?

W: Yes, correct. Here's my credit card.

13번 대화를 듣고, Skyview Exploring Experience에 관해 언급되지 않은 것을 고르시오.

W: Wow, that sounds breathtaking! How long did the whole experience last?

M: It was about two hours. But the time went by so quickly.

W: It must have been really fun. Did you need to bring any equipment?

M: They provided us with everything like goggles and safety gear.

W: That sounds cool. How much is the admission ticket?

M: It costs 50 dollars per person, but it's totally worth it.

W: Oh, I see. Do they offer a group discount?

M: Yes. You get a 20 percent discount for groups of 4 or more.

W: Great! I think I'll try it out with my family next weekend.

W: Hey, honey. You're looking at a list of camping chairs.

M: Yeah. I think we need to replace one of ours. These are the five most popular camping chairs. Let's choose one of them.

W: Good idea. Hmm, to me, anything over 50 dollars seems expensive.

M: You're right. How about a backrest? Do we need one with it?

W: Absolutely. It'll be more comfortable.

M: Okay. I think the frame should be strong so that it can last a long time.

W: I agree. Then let's choose a steel frame rather than a wooden one. Anything else?

M: Make sure it's not too heavy because we're going to be carrying it around. More than four kilograms would be too heavy.

W: Then, we have only one option left. Let's buy this one.

M: Okay.

W: Oh, really? That makes me want to try them now! Where did you get them?

M: My dad bought them for me at a convenience store.

W: Wow, I'm honored, but I don't think my story is that interesting.

M: Nonsense. I was so impressed how you were able to achieve such great success coming from a small village.

W: But I'm not a writer.

M: Don't worry. All you have to do is answer our staff's questions and they'll do the writing.

【19-20】 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

M: Hello, viewers! I'm Tony Barry from One Minute Spark. Today, let's explore inventions created out of love. First, band-aids were invented by Earle Dickson for his wife, who often got injured. He made them to help her treat her wounds when he was away. Next, Maura Horton created magnetic buttons for her husband who suffered from Parkinson's disease. Thanks to these buttons, he could put on and take off his shirt easily without others' help. Third, Alfred Bird's wife was allergic to yeast. So he created baking soda since it can be used as a substitute to cook baked foods. Lastly, Dr. William Halsted invented medical gloves to express his affection for a nurse. They protected her hands, which were constantly becoming damaged from handling strong chemicals. These examples truly show how love sparks creativity. Thanks for tuning in!
