ANN: 이제 시작하겠습니다.

1번 대화를 듣고, 여자의 마지막 말에 대한 남자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Dad, you remember that you're picking me up after the concert, right? Just to let you know, it might end a bit late.

M: Don't worry. What time do you think it'll finish?

W: It may be over by 11 p.m., but I'm not sure.

M: _____

2번 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Hi, Olivia. It looks like you're working really hard on something. What are you doing?

W: Hi, Kevin. I have to submit my college entrance application online by today, but I'm having trouble uploading the documents.

M: Let me take a look. Maybe I can help. I submitted it just a while ago.

W: _____

3번 대화를 듣고, 여자의 마지막 말에 대한 남자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Hi, Darren. I heard that you're moving this weekend. Have you packed everything up?

M: No, I have too much stuff. I was thinking of donating some of it, but I don't know where to do it.

W: Donate? That's a wonderful idea. Actually, I know a few places you can try.

M: _____

4번 다음을 듣고, 남자가 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Hello, viewers. I'm Brian from the With Your Pets channel. We all want to make sure our pets are well fed. But did you know that you have to give the right amount of food to your pets? Overfeeding your pets or giving them too many treats makes them overweight, which could consequently trigger more health problems such as heart disease, weaker joints, and other serious conditions. So, I'd like to emphasize that feeding pets the right amount of food is very important. If you don't exactly know how much food is appropriate for your pet, it's a good idea to get the opinion of your pet specialist. I hope this tip helps you raise a healthy and happy pet!

5번 다음을 듣고, 여자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Good afternoon, students. This is your physics teacher, Amanda Smith and I'm here to ask for volunteers for an exciting opportunity. In three weeks, we'll be hosting a local science festival for elementary school students, and we need your help to make it a success. As a volunteer, you'll help the children conduct simple experiments, lead hands-on activities, and guide them through fun science games. To sign up, please scan the poster's QR code on the science room bulletin board and submit your application by next Thursday. This is a great opportunity to apply the knowledge you've learned. We look forward to your support!

6번 대화를 듣고, 남자의 주장으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Julia, what are you reading?

W: Hey, Ryan. I'm reading about food cultures around the world. Some of them seem so unusual to me.

M: Really? What are they?

W: For example, in some countries, people eat insects like silkworms and grasshoppers.

M: That might sound strange to us, but for them, it's a common part of their diet. So, we should respect other countries' food cultures.

W: I know, but I'm curious why they would eat that.

M: Often, it's based on what's available locally and what they've eaten for a long time. Food is deeply connected to survival and history.

W: I guess it's similar to why we consume a lot of corn and potatoes.

M: That's right. So, we should try to understand and appreciate the food cultures of others with an open mind.

W: I see your point.

7번 대화를 듣고, 여자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Harry, please stop looking at your phone and look forward.

M: I'm just looking at the news about my favorite singer's concert on my phone.

W: Well, it's dangerous to use your phone while walking. You could get yourself or someone else hurt.

M: Don't worry, Mom. I can see everything around me.

W: Watch out, Harry! [Pause] You almost bumped into that lady holding her coffee.

M: Sorry, Mom. I thought I was paying attention to my surroundings while using my phone.

W: It's easy to miss what's happening around you if you're concentrating on your phone.

M: I see. What just happened could have turned into an accident.

W: Exactly. These days, many people use their phones on the street, but it's very dangerous.

M: You're right. Lesson learned. I won't do it again.

8번 대화를 듣고, 두 사람의 관계를 가장 잘 나타낸 것을 고르시오.

[Cellphone rings.]

M: Hello, Helen. How's the show going?

W: Hi, James. I've been a bit busy handling all the duties of a director.

M: I'm sure you'll do great. Is there anything I can help you with?

W: Actually, that's why I called. One of the supporting actors hurt his leg.

M: Oh, no! Is he okay?

W: He'll be fine, but he won't be able to be in this weekend's performance. I really need someone to take his role, and I'm hoping you could do it.

M: Me? It's a bit sudden. I don't know if I can get ready in time.

W: Don't worry. You played the same role in the musical last year, and you sang your parts beautifully.

M: Okay. I'll do it. When is the next rehearsal?

W: 5 p.m. tomorrow. I'll personally direct you as you practice your parts.

M: That'll be a big help.

9번 다음 그림의 상황에 가장 적절한 대화를 고르시오.

W: Number One

M: You've been watching TV all afternoon. Can I switch the channel?

W: No way, I'm still watching. This is a crucial part of the game.

W: Number Two

M: Do you think the new TV will fit on this stand?

W: I think so, but we should measure it to be sure.

W: Number Three

M: Do you know where the charger is? My cellphone is low on battery.

W: Why don't you check the drawer below the TV?

W: Number Four

M: I'd like to buy a new cellphone.

W: I recommend this one. It's the newest model.

W: Number Five

M: It's almost lunch time. What are we having?

W: The weather is nice. Let's go out for lunch.

10번 대화를 듣고, 남자가 여자에게 부탁한 일로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

[Cellphone rings.]

W: Hello?

M: Hi, Lucy. We need the book Modern History Perspectives. It's for our history group project for Introduction to American History.

W: Did you check the library?

M: I checked, but somebody already borrowed it.

W: Oh, that's unfortunate. I'll stop by the campus bookstore and check whether they have it.

M: I called them, but it was sold out.

W: What are we going to do?

M: That's why I called you. Didn't your older brother take the course before?

W: Oh, you're right. I think I remember seeing the book in his room.

M: Then, could you borrow it from him?

W: Sure, no problem.

11번 대화를 듣고, 여자가 노트북 컴퓨터를 교환하려는 이유를 고르시오.

M: Hey, Jessie. What's going on? You look quite annoyed.

W: Hi, Michael. I'm thinking about exchanging my new laptop.

M: Oh, you were worried because that computer model makes a lot of noise, right?

W: No. Actually, it's not that noisy.

M: Well, is there an issue with the battery life?

W: No, it lasts quite long.

M: Then, does the keyboard work well?

W: Yes, it works fine.

M: So, why do you want to exchange it?

W: Actually, there's something wrong with the screen. There are some marks on it that won't go away.

M: Oh, that must be disappointing. I hope you can get it exchanged as soon as possible.

12번 대화를 듣고, 남자가 지불할 금액을 고르시오.

W: Fresh and Yogurt. How can I help you?

M: Hello, could you recommend some popular flavors for kids?

W: Sure! Plain and strawberry are the most popular. Kids love both!

M: How much are they?

W: Plain is 4 dollars each, and strawberry is 5 dollars each.

M: Okay. I'll take two plain yogurts and one strawberry yogurt.

W: Would you like to add a nut topping? It costs 1 dollar for each yogurt.

M: Yes, please add the topping to all three of them.

W: Great choice. So you want to buy two plain yogurts and one strawberry yogurt with a nut topping on each, right?

M: Right. Here's my credit card.

13번 대화를 듣고, City Art Fair에 관해 언급되지 않은 것을 고르시오.

W: Honey, check out the link I just sent you.

M: Let me see. [Pause] City Art Fair? It looks like a wonderful event.

W: Yeah. We should definitely go there. It'll be held on September 27th. A number of artists will take part in the Fair.

M: That sounds interesting. How much is the entrance fee?

W: It's 5 dollars per person, and kids under 14 can enter for free.

M: Great! What kinds of art will be displayed?

W: There'll be paintings, ceramics, and photography by local artists as well as live art demonstrations.

M: That's great. We could watch artists create their work in real time.

W: They'll also have various artworks for sale, like the artists' handmade cups and small pots.

M: Perfect. Let's make sure we don't miss the Fair.

14번 2025 Robot Racing Competition에 관한 다음 내용을 듣고, 일치하지 않는 것을 고르시오.

M: Attention, tech lovers! Are you ready to race your way to the future? Join the 2025 Robot Racing Competition! Like last year, middle and high school students can participate. Make teams of up to four and take on this challenge. There are many hills on our track that your robot must go over. You must make the robots by yourself, which means ready-made robots cannot be used. The robots can be any shape or material. However, they must be under 50 centimeters in length. The winning team will have the opportunity to visit a leading U.S. robotics company. Don't miss this chance to show your creativity and engineering skills!

15번 다음 표를 보면서 대화를 듣고, 두 사람이 구매할 소파를 고르시오.

W: Hey, Jack. We should consider which sofa to get for the new house. Could you take a look at this list?

M: Absolutely. What would be the perfect size for the sofa?

W: Our living room wall is 4 meters long. So, the sofa shouldn't be bigger than that.

M: Okay. What material would you like? I see most of them are fabric or leather.

W: I guess the leather one is easier to clean.

M: I agree. And since all of our other furniture is dark, a black sofa would be better. What do you think?

W: Excellent point! What's the maximum price we can spend on the sofa?

M: I don't think we can spend more than 800 dollars.

W: You're right. Then, let's buy this one.

16번 대화를 듣고, 여자의 마지막 말에 대한 남자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Hey, Henry. I watched the videos you posted on your social media about raising fish.

M: Oh, did you? What did you think about them?

W: They were very interesting. You gave me some useful tips for raising my fish.

M: Thanks for your encouraging comment. But I have a concern.

W: What's that?

M: Well, the number of viewers isn't really increasing.

W: Hmm, have you thought about adding subtitles? They'll make your videos more accessible to global viewers.

M: That's true. I guess subtitles could attract more viewers.

W: Definitely! They can also help viewers better understand what you're saying.

M: _____

17번 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Hi, Kate. I heard you're going abroad. When are you leaving?

W: I'm leaving next month. I'm planning to travel around Central and South America for a month.

M: Wow, that sounds amazing! Have you finished preparing for your trip?

W: I think I'm almost done. I prepared the travel documents, money and credit cards, comfortable shoes, and a first-aid kit.

M: Did you get the necessary vaccine shots?

W: Do I really need to get vaccinated?

M: Of course! There are some vaccine shots you should get for each region before your visit.

W: Oh, I didn't know that. Where can I get that information?

M: You can find it on the government's website. Vaccinations should be received about 4 weeks before traveling.

W: _____

18번 다음 상황 설명을 듣고, Linda가 David에게 할 말로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: David is leading a group project on the effects of inflation for his economics class. He has planned how to gather data and create detailed charts. However, he hasn't clearly explained the project's main objective to the team, leaving the other members confused about their tasks. Linda, one of the team members, notices the confusion during a meeting. While David is preparing a chart, Linda realizes that providing a clear explanation of the overall project goal would benefit everyone. So, she wants to suggest that he should explain the goal of the project clearly to the members before anything else. In this situation, what would Linda most likely say to David?

【19-20】 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

W: Trees are especially important when we plan our cities. Having trees not only makes our cities look nice, but it also helps in many ways. Let me tell you about some trees that benefit our cities. First, maple trees give us cool shade in the summer, making the air around them up to 10 degrees cooler. Second, each oak tree can collect over 5,000 gallons of rainwater every year. This helps secure our drinking water supply and prevent floods. Next, willow trees are planted along the river because their long roots keep the soil strong and clean the water naturally. Lastly, pine trees are very useful in the winter because they block cold winds, helping people save money on heating. Now, let's take a closer look at what kinds of trees are in our town.

19번 여자가 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

20번 언급된 나무가 아닌 것을 고르시오.
